

TEAMING SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

The Radiochemistry Society is the world's only premier scientific organization dedicated to radiochemistry. Our uniquely defined mission provides us the opportunity to serve nations around the world in pursuit of excellence in the field of nuclear chemistry. Our unique mission is accomplished primarily through training in the nuclear sciences, meetings and exchanges of scientific information. We are recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a Non-profit 501c3 corporation.

We offer our Teaming Sponsors a full range and variety of market recognition and training services based upon the level of annual support
